Mr. Greg Pierce
R. D. #5
Dilworthtown Road
West Chester, Penna. 19380

Dear Mr. Pierce:

Thank you for your letter of March 24 concerning the Warren Commission Report.

Like you, and like most Americans I have been troubled by the persistent controversy surrounding the findings of the Commission headed by Chief Justice Warren. I have no way of knowing whether the doubts which now exist in the minds of many people could be resolved by a reopening of the inquiry, but I shall certainly give sympathetic consideration to such proposals, should any be offered.

I am enclosing a variety of materials which I think might be of interest to you. In addition, I am sending to you, under separate cover, a copy of the Department of Agricultural 1968 Yearbook, which you have requested.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH S. CLARK
